Fantasy-action flourishes enliven 'Darna' episode

AFTER a so-so start last week, GMA 7's "Darna" made a better impression on us when we viewed it last Monday. The reason was simple: the fantasyer finally opened so far as fantasy-action, rather than predictable melodrama.

VIEWFINDER

Alexander de Mesa

In the episode we caught, the grown-up Narda/Darna character played by Angel Locsin made her appearance in a particularly strong way, combining with a number of colorful villains:

Alexander de Mesa portrayed Valiente, a former childhood friend of Narda's who has become a minion of the evil character played by Celia Rodriguez.

Roldan Garcia has become an "evil doctor" who is surrounded by less-than-pretty young women, who send people to their death in a cloud of something, smelly, smoky.

In addition, there were any number of would-be kidnappers and other miscreants whose nasty schemes Darna had to foil.

To provide Narda/Darna a quality of greater "philosophical" weight she was given a mission when she lost brain and no longer knowing to drive herself in bringing others.

This was staged in a rather perfunctory manner, but we appreciated a new wrinkle, because it gave the topic become a different level of importance that went beyond the usual fauuffs and flying scenes, and the variation was all in the good.

We liked the more action-oriented episode better than the first melodrama-melodrama which we watched, and hope that the show will putter this task in future episodes. It's not obvious and mushy, and makes better use of the television medium's visual language.

Of course, this will require the show's writers to think up increasingly more inventive action-scenes as well as more colorful villains and other characters. This is not as easy as it initially seems, so fresh batches of writers may periodically have to be infused into the series' production team, to keep the show's creative alive up.

Feedback

FROM Nora Fabricatore of Vancouver, Canada: "Your column on Nora Andor was the best article I ever read on a paper. I'm glad to hear that. Moving on, you've made Nora's happy by boosting our morale in this difficult time."

Solo concert

RACHELLE Ann Go will mark her first anniversary in entertainment with a major solo concert at the Alvin Theater in April 29, with Ogie Alcasid, Mark Bautista, Christian Bautista and Jay-R as her special guests. After the show, she will fly to the States for another concert tour.

and "Finding Neverland."

Awards won by "Million Dollar Baby" are for Best Picture, Best Director, Best Actress and Best Supporting Actor. "The Artist" got trophies for Best Supporting Actress and Best Art Direction. "Sideways" was cited for Best Adapted Screenplay. And "Finding Neverland" clinched a season for Best Original Score.

Movie on TV

VIEWING urges on HBO April 24 at 6 a.m., "Mach the Knife." The movie adaptation of Bertolt Brecht's play turned into a musical by Kurt Weill, set in London during the time of Queen Victoria's coronation, which is understood to be pursued by dragons led by Mr. Prachum (Richard Morris) and criminals ruled by Max (Keith Raul Zeller). Also known as Mach the Knife. Mach lives after Prachum's young daughter Polly, and she leads to "war" breaking out on the poverty-stricken streets of London.

11 P.M. "Charlotte Gray." Cate Blanchett plays the title character, a Scottish woman who goes to France during the war to look for the man she loves, who's been reported missing in action. She volunteers to work with French resistance forces, disguised as a woman from Paris. In fact, however, she finds herself attracted to Julien (Billy Crudup), a communist working with the resistance. But what about her missing lover?

Stereophonics

BRITAIN'S best-selling band, Stereophonics, has released its new album, "Language. Sex. Violence. Other," and it topped the UK charts on its first week of release. The album is also climbing in Europe, the US and Asia.

The first single from the album, "Dakota," has a happy-sad hook. "Duran" is an energetic, raucous romp. And "Superman" is a classic modern rocker. Critics take on the album as a whole. "All killers, no fillers!"

The album also introduces the band's newest member, drummer Javier Wyles, to music fans.

1. Identify the main components of the diagram:

- Top Section: A horizontal line with a central point labeled "1". To the left of "1" is "2" and to the right is "3". Below "1" is "4".
- Bottom Section: A horizontal line with a central point labeled "5". To the left of "5" is "6" and to the right is "7". Below "5" is "8".
- Connections: A vertical line connects "1" to "5". A horizontal line connects "2" to "6". A horizontal line connects "3" to "7". A horizontal line connects "4" to "8".

2. Interpret the diagram:

- The diagram shows a hierarchical structure with two levels. The top level has three nodes (2, 1, 3) and the bottom level has three nodes (6, 5, 7). The central nodes (1 and 5) are connected by a vertical line, and the outer nodes are connected by horizontal lines.

3. Conclusion:

- The diagram illustrates a hierarchical structure with two levels. The top level has three nodes (2, 1, 3) and the bottom level has three nodes (6, 5, 7). The central nodes (1 and 5) are connected by a vertical line, and the outer nodes are connected by horizontal lines.

The diagram illustrates a two-dimensional lattice structure. It consists of a grid of points. Arrows indicate the types of interactions between these points: solid arrows represent nearest-neighbor interactions, and dashed arrows represent next-nearest-neighbor interactions. The distance between nearest neighbors is labeled as 'a', and the distance between next-nearest neighbors is labeled as 'b'.

Gov't trims growth targets due to surging oil prices

By David C. Johnson

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP) — The White House on Tuesday trimmed its economic growth targets for 2004 and 2005, reflecting the impact of surging oil prices and other factors. The new targets are lower than those announced last year, but still show strong growth for the economy.

The White House said that the economy is expected to grow at an average rate of 3.5% in 2004, down from 4.5% last year. For 2005, the target is 4.0%, down from 5.0% last year. The White House also lowered its target for the unemployment rate, which is expected to fall from 5.5% in 2004 to 4.5% in 2005.

Airport agency delays $500-M loan signing

By David C. Johnson

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP) — The Federal Aviation Administration on Tuesday delayed signing a $500-million loan guarantee for the construction of a new airport terminal at Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport. The delay is due to a dispute over the loan's terms and conditions.

The FAA said that it is still negotiating with the airport authority over the loan's terms and conditions. The airport authority wants a lower interest rate and a longer repayment period than what the FAA is offering. The FAA says that it is unable to agree to these terms because it would be too costly for the government.

Pope John Paul II: Love letter to the elderly

Figure 1 consists of four bar charts arranged in a 2x2 grid, showing the percentage of respondents for various questions in the elderly. The top row shows 'Do you have a job?' and 'Do you have a spouse?'. The bottom row shows 'Do you have a child?' and 'Do you have a grandchild?'. Each chart compares 'Yes' and 'No' responses across different age groups (65-74, 75-84, 85+).

Question	Response	65-74	75-84	85+
Do you have a job?	Yes	~15%	~10%	~5%
	No	~85%	~90%	~95%
Do you have a spouse?	Yes	~45%	~40%	~35%
	No	~55%	~60%	~65%

The diagram illustrates the experimental setup. A subject is seated at a table, looking at a video screen. A camera is positioned above the screen to capture the subject's view. A light source is positioned to the left of the screen to illuminate the scene. A scale bar is located below the screen to provide a reference for size. The setup is used to study the perception of size and distance.

Potent images from women artists

By Catherine E. Reyes

By now, the Philippines has become a melting pot of cultures, where the East meets the West. This is reflected in the art scene, where artists are blending traditional Filipino motifs with modern Western techniques. The result is a vibrant and diverse body of work that resonates with both local and international audiences.

The art scene in the Philippines has seen a significant shift in the past few years. Artists are no longer confined to traditional themes and styles. Instead, they are exploring new mediums and subjects, often drawing inspiration from their own experiences and the world around them. This has led to a more inclusive and dynamic art community.

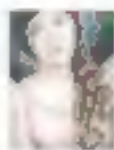

One of the most notable trends in contemporary Filipino art is the use of mixed media. Artists are combining traditional materials like wood, stone, and fabric with modern elements like paint, ink, and digital technology. This creates a rich and textured visual language that is uniquely Filipino.

Another trend is the focus on social and political issues. Many artists are using their work to comment on current events, such as the environment, human rights, and social inequality. This makes art a powerful tool for social change and activism.

Overall, the Philippine art scene is thriving and evolving. It is a reflection of the country's rich cultural heritage and its openness to the world. As more artists continue to push the boundaries of their craft, the future of Philippine art looks bright and full of potential.
